

Camphill School presents Ian von Memerty

Ian von Memerty has been described as 'the English dictionary definition of show business' as well as 'Captain Entertainment'. On Saturday, 7 March 2015, he will present his Cabaret Performance for Camphill School at the Municipal Auditorium in Hermanus.

Ian has received 15 national theatre awards and has been nominated for a further 17. He is known as the presenter of two seasons of the hit TV series Strictly Come Dancing and the emotional judge on SA's Got Talent.

His two-man piano show A Handful of Keys, South Africa's most successful musical show ever, has been running for the past 20 years – celebrating 1 150 performances to over 375 000 people.

Ian von Memerty is known as South Africa's most versatile entertainer bringing you an evening of pianistic dynamite, magical music and sheer entertainment.

Come and enjoy wines from the valley, elegant eats and a performance that is guaranteed to be outstanding – tickets are limited at R350 per person.

Please contact the Camphill School office for further information on 028 312 4949 or email genevieve@camphill-hermanus.org.za