announced that a total of R677 677.39 – the largest amount in the history of L2L – had been raised by the walkers for Camphill School. Jeanne-Marie Botha, principal of the school, and Genevieve Linney, PR officer and fundraiser, expressed their sincere gratitude and said they commended the spirit of the L2L ladies. “You are such an inspiration to us all and it was an honour to hang those medals around your necks at the Danger Point Lighthouse finishing line,” said Genevieve.

Marco Dunston and Julius Booysen from OAPD and Val Kwaan from OWA were equally delighted to receive their donation of R50 000 as the runner-up charities.
