

Captain Entertainment coming to Hermanus

Known for his performance in the two-man piano show A Handful of Keys, Ian von Memerty has been described as "the English dictionary definition of show business".

On Saturday 7 March he will present his cabaret performance for Camphill School at the Municipal Auditorium.

Ian von Memerty

Ian, also named Captain Entertainment, became a household name as a presenter of Strictly Come Dancing, the emotional judge on SA's Got Talent, and as the creator of the record breaking show A Handful of Keys.

During his performance here in Hermanus, Ian will share highlights of his career in what promises to be an evening of pianistic dynamite, stomach-cramping comedy, magical music and sheer entertainment.

Come and enjoy wines from the valley, elegant eats and a performance guaranteed to be outstanding.

Tickets are limited at R350 per person, and are available at Alex Grant Pharmacy, Stewarts Pharmacy, Onrus Pharmacy, Wine Village and Camphill School.

For further information, contact the Camphill School office on 028 312 4949 or email genevieve@camphill-hermanus.org.za.
